

Viewing the Stock Reconciliation

In this video you will learn about how to view and maintain your stock reconciliation. Your stock reconciliation is important for keeping track of the number of animals on your farm, and the related transactions such as births, purchases, deaths and sales.

To view your Stock rec, click Stock, Add or remove stock, then Stock reconciliation.

By default, the Stock rec will display the current month.

To change the date range, open the filter and select the date range you require or use the Quick date select for time periods like 'this financial year'.

You can set other filter options as well.

Click View to see your selected criteria.
